MOTION REQUESTING DEFAULT JUDGEMENT

I plaintiff, KURT DUANE WILLIAMS, in the above aforementioned case # 2:20-CV-285-Z-BR am requesting a default judgement on the defendants. Pursuant rule 503.1, TEX. R. P. 503.1 (a)Default Judgement. If the defendant fails to file an answer by the date stated in rule 502.2, the judge must ensure that service was proper, and may hold a hearing for this purpose. If it is determined that service was proper, the judge must render a default judgement in the following matter. Also, see...Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 99.C

Rule 55: Federal Rule of Civil Procedure-(A) entering a default judgement when a party against whom a judgement or affirmation relief is sought, has failed to plea or otherwise defend, and that failure is shown by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk must enter the parties' default. Also see... Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 535.

In Good Faith, may Justice be served,
